His restaurant is thriving, shes got her dream job at Blue Heron Vineyard—its the perfect time to get married. When he pops the question, however, her answer is a fond but firm no. If it aint broke, why fix it? Jess has her hands full with her younger brother, whos now living with her full-time, and a great career after years of waitressing. What she and Connor have is perfect: friends with an excellent benefits package. Besides, with her difficult past (and reputation), shes positive married life isnt for her.
